1. Intelligence Orientation

a. Introduction to Intelligence Orientation #47 ended on 15 September. Despite the extremely hot weather, the students maintained both drive and interest. Unusually high scores on the final examination certified to their intelligence and industry. One student wrote a perfect paper.

b. Because of the Veterans' Day holiday on Friday, 10 November, the starting date of the next IO is being changed from Monday, 6 November to Friday, 3 November. The Registrar will issue a Special Bulletin on this change. This change will permit us to run a full five-day course, including the Exhibit, on Wednesday, 8 November, and will not interfere with the Introduction to Communism schedule.

Final schedules for Intelligence Review #3 are being sent to speakers this week. The course is scheduled for 2 - 13 October.
